Footnotes

SETTLE FOR MEDAL off alertly, was on the front before reaching the end of the homestretch, tucked along the rail and carved the pace on a loosely-contested lead, was asked for some run leaving the three-eighths pole and sprinted away from the closest pursuers, maintained a healthy advantage to the end, driving. SPECIAL ACTION chased the winner along the outside from the get-go and proved no match. L. C. SLEEPY raced from off the rail and bested the rest. HOUSTON HARBOR failed to contend off a ground-saving journey, had the rider lose the whip in upper stretch. FU PEGS BABY saved ground until the quarter pole. GYPSY WARRIOR three wide around each bend, got put to protective hold nearing the quarter pole, was eased a furlong down the road before being pulled up and subsequently vanned off.
