Footnotes

DECEMBER DIVA was placed under a firm hold soon after the start, sat well within range and unhurried for nearly a half, ranged up towards the front runners leaving the five-sixteenths pole, still having not been asked for any serious run, angled three wide into lane after having now been set down, rallied past a pair of rivals to poke a head in front at the eighth pole, with the runner up looming boldly along the rail, then edged away from that foe under a drive to prove best. RED'S KITTY HAWK patiently tracked the leaders under a firm hold while taking the inside route, bided time until the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, advanced with a good turn of foot to be a serious threat by midstretch, gradually lost contact with the top one thereafter, but continued on willingly to procure the place. LUCKY LESLIE was lightly bumped at the start, moved up to assume the role of stalker down the backstretch, bid in earnest coming to the quarter pole, fought her way nearly to the front during the ensuing furlong, only to flatten out a bit during the final sixteenth. EUROSENSATION bumped between rivals at the start, raced towards the back of the pack, turned for home under a drive and managed to improve position while displaying a mild kick. STONERIDGE three wide at the half mile pole, altered course to steer clear of a fading rival coming to the eighth pole, but lacked a serious stretch offering after completing the maneuver. CHARLIE N ALEX came out a bit at the start, initiating some bumping between herself and the nearest two opponents directly to the right, was taken in hand and pulled off EUROSENSATION and then off the runner up in rapid succession, went back on a straight course and was hand urged to grab the lead, showed the way from the inside until upper stretch and gave way. CITY VICE widest on the turn, tired. JERBOA rode the rail and was always far back.
