Footnotes

GO OLIVIA GO took up the chase from the two path on the bend, closed in front runners, briskly hand ridden from the five-sixteenths marker to the quarter pole, was under much stronger encouragement angling three wide into the stretch, had no loss of momentum after getting straightened away, left the eighth pole as the new leader, lengthened away, kept busy to the end. FIRST PENNY was brushed shortly after the field was sent on its way, argued for command as the innermost of a threesome until halfway down the backstretch, proceeded to get angled three wide from the five-sixteenths pole, spun four wide into upper stretch, rallied her way into second position, then reached the wire in time to preserve it. C C'S PRIDE saved ground, cut the corner into the stretch, altered course towards the outside travelling between the furlong marker and the sixteenth pole, finishing the maneuver in the five path, flashed good, but belated energy missing out on place honors. GUYANA STAR departed the backstretch from the two path, fanned outward for optimal racing clearance during the initial portion of the stretch drive, found it being seven wide after nearly all the way through the furlong grounds, mustered up a mild response to take the last major check. SHE'S GOSPHE! contested the pace outside another pair during the opening phases, shook free and was sent over to the rail in the vicinity of the half mile pole, hat RAIN FOREST draw up to her and press the issue right afterwards, arrived at the end of the bend still hounded by the aforementioned rival, offered some resistance before relinquishing to the top one, weakened steadily thereafter. RAIN FOREST disputed the pace from between rivals early, was taken hold and allowed to ease back, moved up willingly to re-engage with SHE'S GOSPHE!, this time going one on one with that foe from the two path, got set down turning for home, with the top one having made her presence felt, fought once more positioned between opponents from upper stretch to past the eighth pole then gave way. EXCLUSIVE SARAH bumped lightly from both sides at the start, raced from off the inside, commenced the stretch five wide, had little left and tired.
