Footnotes

THEPOWERSTHATBE took over the advantage early down the backstretch, cut the pace kept at a slight distance from off the rail on a loosely-contested lead, entered the stretch and got let out, maintained a safe margin to the end, driving. ALPHA J stalked the winner from the two path, pulled on the bit appearing unsettled for much of the way down the backstretch, seemed more professional upon reaching the turn, was set down and tipped slightly outward in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, proved no match for the top one, yet continued onward in a willing manner to secure second. CONCEALED made light contact with AH GAGA a few strides after the start, was guided over to the inside route well before reaching the end of the backstretch, rode the rail for a good portion of the way around the turn, was put to some encouragement and angled outward late on the turn in preparation for the stretch, rallied to grab the show. LA VERDAD was lightly bumped a short distance from the starting gate, stalked the pacesetter, continued along in the task from between rivals during the earliest stages of the run around the bend, weakened steadily after completing a half. AH GAGA was bumped from between rivals in the early going, departed the backstretch from the three path, was cued up and launched a run from the five-sixteenths pole, failed to sustain it after entering the stretch. MISS MASTERY swung five wide into upper stretch, was no menace. MIZ OWELL quickly tucked along the rail, abandoned the inside route and was taken outward approaching the quarter pole until three wide by the top of the lane, made no headway on the frontrunners. COX'S CANYON saved ground, was used for almost the entire initial half, pausing only from the brisk hand urging in the vicinity of the half mile pole, gave way. RAPIDIZE broke on top, held the lead for more than a couple of jumps before falling back in position, was three wide entering the turn, got put to solid encouragement halfway around the turn, tired nonetheless, then was eased after turning for home.
