Footnotes

SIDEWAYS VISION showed the way while saving ground, got set down for the drive home, drew well clear of the others, kept to the task at hand. FOREVER UTOPIA prompted the winner from the two path, proved no match. WOKE UP TIRED brushed shortly after the start, took up position in midpack along the outside, unleashed a three wide run on the far turn, failed to sustain it spinning into the stretch and had to settle for the show. FUSAICHI'S SONG was placed along the inside route at the top of the backstretch, tracked the front runners, firmly rated at first, cut the corner into the stretch, came up empty. MY FRIEND KEITH made light contact with WOKE UP TIRED leaving the starting gate, continued to lean upon that opponent for a couple of jumps afterwards, travelled three wide on the first turn, but was closer to the rail on the subsequent one, needed to get asked for run to keep pace as six furlongs was being completed, failed to do so and backed away. BORN IN BROOKLYN light bumped by his stable mate right after the start, raced at or near the two path to the three-eighths pole, settled along the rail in the vicinity of that station and gave way. COFFEE AND DONUTS strung out in the three path on the opening bend, continued at a considerable distance from off the rail thereafter, got fanned six wide during the initial portion of the stretch drive, made no headway. HARBOR KING off the inside throughout, departed the backstretch from the three path, drifted six wide into the stretch tiring and got eased.
