Footnotes

MINISTER'S FATE contently pressed the early pacesetter from the two path, moved up to look that one in the eye approaching the half mile pole, raced on nearly even terms for most of the way around the far turn, had safely put away that opponent before turning for home, drew out to a comfortable advantage by midstretch and had no difficulty maintaining it, despite drifting out badly the entire length of the lane. MIGHTY IRISH saved ground, was taken off the inside in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, entered the stretch under encouragement and lumbered along for the place. CRAFTY N P set the pace from the inside, was tested by the top one nearing the far turn, and had little too offer by the quarter pole. SEVEN IN A ROW was never in the hunt.
