Footnotes

DIGGER three wide departing the backstretch, vied for the lead, while under a good hold, took over when let out approaching the three-sixteenths pole, and edged clear, under a vigorous hand ride. SUN DANCE MOON saved ground, angled four wide for the stretch drive, and came home with good energy to procure the place. RICORIATOA exchanged several light bumps after the start, at first with SIN AND THE CITY and a few jumps later with HEWITTS, went on to race three wide around the turn, made a bid from the quarter pole only to flatten out the last eighth. HEWITTS was pulled off DRIFT KING leaving the starting gate, traded a few light bumps with RICORIATOA a short distance later, was placed four wide at the half mile pole, was called upon turning for home, but lacked the needed response. SIN AND THE CITY brushed with RICORIATOA soon after the start, settled along the inside soon afterwards, angled outward into traffic in upper stretch, altered course for freedom at the furlong marker, but had no closing punch. DRIFT KING vied for the lead from the two path with the winner and was through after completing a half.
