Footnotes

SWEET SWAY involved in a brief pace skirmish down the backstretch, dropped back slightly at the half mile pole, moved back up to engage the front runners shortly afterwards, disputed the pace from the three path and from between rivals for most of the way around the turn, entered the stretch and was called upon, shook free to emerge from the furlong grounds holding his biggest advantage, had it cut into substantially by the second place finisher thereafter but held sway. KEEP BUSTIN settled into the middle of the pack from off the rail, was kept to some hand coaxing idling off a wall consisting of four spread out across the track, forced to do so for a sixteenth starting from the five-sixteenths marker, was given his cue and angled three wide into the stretch, was nearly at the eighth pole when he altered course over to the inside, maintained the momentum through it all and launched a rail rally for the place. DAISYSGONNAMAKEIT reserved early, advanced together with the runner up to contest the pace, undergoing it as the widest of four, challenged in earnest as the field headed for the top of the lane, held on well to take the show. GEE LINZ fanned five wide into the stretch, lacked a late closing response. GRACEFUL MEGHAN moved up after the start to engage another pair for command, tried to split them to take over, but wasn't up to that task, sparred with UNTAPPED SECRET from just off that rival's hind quarters, had two others join the dispute past the half mile, continued around the turn, two wide and wedged between rivals vying for the lead, arrived at quarter pole under a drive, stayed a prominent factor for a little while longer and gave way. UNTAPPED SECRET was taken hold after breaking slightly to the inside, vied briefly with another pair midway down the backstretch, before resuming the battle one on one with the middle member of that fight, had two others, parked out in paths three and four respectively make their presence soon after entering the turn, came under heavier pressure approaching the quarter pole and got asked for a response, yielded quickly and retreated.
