Footnotes

EARLY RESPONSE was firmly rated while tracking the early pacesetter, remained on hold until nearing the quarter pole, shot through a clear opening along the rail in the vicinity of the quarter pole to take charge, then drew off during the final furlong under a mild hand ride. LIGHT FEVER broke outward a bit at the start, gained the lead soon after leaving the starting gate, cut the fractions while being kept deliberately off the inside, was overwhelmed in short order when the top one made his move in upper stretch but continued on willingly to secure the place. WEEKEND ACTION unhurried while racing in the two path, displayed enough interest to be along for the show in the late stages. CARTER'S STORE was bumped after stumbling at the start, pressed the leader three wide until upper stretch and steadily tired thereafter. FOUR STAR BO steadied slightly after being bumped at the start, took the inside route and was no threat. SLEVIN underwent a four wide journey and gave way.
