Footnotes

SAGINAW came out well and established control, cut the pace, being rated along with the main pressure coming from JOHANNESBURG SMILE parked out two wide and just off his hind quarters, fended off that rival's attempt to increase his presence at the top of the far turn, edged away from the others, most of whom were being asked for run, to arrive at the quarter pole holding his biggest advantage, spun into the stretch and was put to a drive, wandered over onto the two path during the ensuing furlong, after being fed steady left handed encouragement, saw the margin cut into drastically in the late stages, was under heavy assault from both the inside and the outside during the final seventy yards, held on well enough long enough to salvage a share of first. AWESOME VISION sat reserved at the back of the pack in the initial stages, got tipped to be three wide early down the backstretch, was kept at a considerable distance from off the rail thereafter, was given his cue and launched a three wide run from the five-sixteenths pole, maintained the momentum after turning a bit wider into the stretch, closed in readily past the eighth pole, with JOHANNESBURG SMILE likewise rallying, only hugging the rail, continued onward with good belated energy to finish on even terms with SAGINAW. JOHANNESBURG SMILE assumed a forward position shortly after the start, was let out by the seven-sixteenths pole, got put to much stronger handling a furlong later yet fell back steadily nonetheless, altered course to the rail in midstretch, came back willingly but fell short. MINE OVER MATTER was unhurried along the outside for six furlongs, commenced the stretch drive three wide, had no rally. UNCLE T SEVEN quickly tucked along the rail, got angled out three wide leaving the five-sixteenths pole, faltered. SOCIALSAUL tracked from the inside and gave way.
