Footnotes

WESTERDAY bobbed at the break bumping MS TRUE WAY as she recovered her footing, set the pace from just off the inside under light urging, got set down at the quarter pole, dug in under challenge from GRACIE TOO through the final furlong, repulsed that foe to the wire holding sway to prevail. GRACIE TOO bumped at the start when SWEETEST PEACH broke inwards, attended the pace within aim three wide, got asked nearing the quarter pole, swung three wide at that station, rallied to be latched on within the final furlong but was repulsed and held at bay to the wire while clear for the place. BAAL PERAZIM just off the pace tracking from just off the inside, came under encouragement at the five-sixteenths, offered up a mild bid in the late stages to secure the show honors. MS. TRUE WAY bumped at the start as WESTERDAY recovered her footing from bobbling, chased three to four wide throughout urged from three furlongs out, kept on mildly until weakening late on. SWEETEST PEACH broke in at the start brushing the gate and bumping GRACIE TOO into RACHINI, saved ground towards the rear, came under urging midway on the turn, angled three wide in upper stretch and offered no response. RACHINI jostled between foes and squeezed back at the start due to pressure from SWEETEST PEACH, came under hustling to recover, was outrun in the early stages and made no impact. DEVOLUTION three to four wide towards the rear pushed along from three furlongs out, proved no factor. PATTONESQUE tracked the pace along the inside ridden along from midway on the turn, cut the corner into the stretch and folded.
