Footnotes

MAHFOUZ contested the pace from the outside, with the rider applying a good hold on the reins, went by SILVER SKATES and had no sooner done so when ADVANCEDANDRETREAT drew alongside, successfully fended off that opponent's bid well before reaching the quarter pole, turned for home in possession of a comfortable advantage and got called upon, emerged from the furlong grounds with a healthier lead, swerved outward a couple of paths after being on the receiving end of some left handed stick work, had the rider switch over to a strong hand ride and continued to draw off, kept busy to the end. SOLID D'ORO off the inside, was put to a prolonged drive and out finished weak and tired ones to be along for the place. ADVANCEANDRETREAT coaxed along down the backstretch to keep pace with the front runners, assumed a forward position once SILVER SKATES began his retreat, applied mild pressure for an eighth starting from the seven-sixteenths pole, tired steadily thereafter. MECKE ME SHOOT was never involved. SILVER SKATES argued for control from the inside until just past the half mile pole, wilted.
