Footnotes

SCORCH THE TORCH was taken in hand after breaking awkwardly, settled into midpack along the outside, left the five-sixteenths pole three wide, responded positively when roused in upper stretch, fought his way to the front arriving at the sixteenth pole and drew clear, despite drifting out badly. HARDSHELL broke outward a bit leaving the gate, advanced willingly into a forward position, picked up the mantle from TOMMY KARAKORUM to pressure SUNDAY SPLITSVILLE once the former had backed away, disputed the pace while racing three wide around the turn, turned for home with a clear advantage, came under assault from the top one during the later stages of run through the furlong grounds, yielded to the winner in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole but had no trouble salvaging place honors. BACKCOUNTRY BOY swung three wide for the stretch drive and got out finished. TOMMY KARAKORUM vied briefly for the lead, and tired. SUNDAY SPLITSVILLE contested the pace, for the second time, two wide around the turn and had little left after entering the stretch. SUTTLE RICH was always outrun.
