Footnotes

YOUR TIME IS UP away from the starting gate with no apparent mishap, hooked up in what turned out to be a protracted duel with the runner up, sparred with that rival from the outside, isolated from the others throughout the entire dispute, got called upon for the stretch, took over past the eighth pole and gamely edge away from a resolute opponent. CHINA GOLD stumbled badly at the start, yet managed to outbreak all but one rival, settled towards the inside as a long pace dispute with the top one commenced, vied on nearly even terms with that foe all the way around the turn, had the battle spill over into the stretch, yielded and fell back by a slim margin, continued on with good courage but had to settle for the place. RISKY PREDICAMENT reserved from the two path off the disputed pace, proved no match. LEGAL LADY got off slowly after lunging up at the start, departed the backstretch three wide, was under urging for most of the way from the top of the turn to its end, fanned about five wide into the stretch, tired. TIZAHEROINE travelled from the three path on the turn, was through by the quarter pole. DON'T HOOK MY HALO got away the slowest of all after breaking awkwardly, displayed greenness by climbing while proceeding down the backstretch, was along the outside and under some encouragement near the top of the turn while striding out more professionally, went on to improve position. BORN SUNDAY saved ground throughout while getting asked for run nearly throughout and was outrun. FOREVER FOR ALWAYS out slightly at the start, was pulled away from the nearest foe, raced from off the inside and was never a menace.
