Footnotes

RIGBY away quickly from the gate, took control as JIMMY VEGAS chose not to press the issue early, was put to a firm hold, after settling along the inside, set moderate splits, facing only light pressure, briefly sputtered away midway on the far turn, was set down in upper stretch, while the main stretch threat turned for home four wide, left the furlong grounds on nearly even terms, then dug in stubbornly under brisk handling to prove best. MOON RAVEN saved ground during the initial stages, was eased off the rail midway down the backstretch, entered contention with a four wide run around the far turn, with the rider attempting to keep something in reserve, spun four wide into the lane, took off in earnest once straightened away, looked the top one in the eye at the eighth pole, tried valiantly but was out gamed to the wire. MARQUET REBEL three wide around both turns, had no kick. JIMMY VEGAS left quickly and in good order, was grabbed hold and took up the role of stalker, attended the pacesetter from the two path, failed to keep pace by midpoint on the second turn, despite being put to some encouragement and steadily weakened thereafter. SEEKING ANITA trailed throughout.
