Footnotes

FULL OF GUT lunged at the start, ducking out slightly and narrowly missed making contact with the right side of the starting gate, was grabbed hold and put back on proper course, went up willingly to procure a forward position, contently stayed within striking distance of the front runners in the three path, advanced towards the loose leader once the rider of LADY OF THE FOREST asked his mount for run, this occurring in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, turned for home with the pilot going to work, narrowed the gap during the ensuing furlong, continued onward, was kept to a strong right handed whip and flashed the whip from that side as well en route to taking over, edged away, kept busy to the end. FAMOUS ROSE established control soon after the start, carved the pace from the rail, at times being lightly urged, but at no time feeling any serious pressure during the opening half, built up her biggest advantage by the quarter pole, remained on reserve until midstretch, yielded when no longer able to resist the winner, held on well for the place. LANDING MY WAY tucked into the two path at the half mile pole, was positioned between rivals for much of the run around the turn, wound up four wide by upper stretch and finished with belatedly energy to secure the show. ROSE'S TURN was taken in hand after being bounced around between rivals shortly after the start, departed the backstretch from the three path, sat in midpack, got called upon, but lacked the necessary response. LADY OF THE FOREST prompted the pacesetter from the two path, was put to encouragement coming to the five-sixteenths pole after going a half. ROMAN RENEGADE saved ground and had no rally. HOUSE ON TOILSOME was sent over to the rail in the early stages of the race, fought against the bit proceeding towards the half mile pole, was angled off the rail at the quarter pole, had no offering to render.
