Footnotes

SAM SPARKLE was allowed to settle into stride, left the rail a short distance before reaching the half mile pole, gradually drew up to the leader, got hooked up in a spirited tussle from the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole to just past the eighth pole, edged clear from that point being kept busy to the end. NOT NOW ASHLEY bobbed at the start, moved up willingly to assume early command, took up residence along the inside down the backstretch, came under assault from the top one approaching the five-sixteenths pole, battled hard with that opponent from that station until just past midstretch, backed away when no longer capable of keeping pace, but preserved place honors, requiring only light encouragement to get the job done. D J'S REVENGE chased along the outside and proved no match for the top twosome. TEN STORMS sluggish leaving the gate, was outrun. MISTER MEEHAN bobbed at the start and offered little.
