Footnotes

SUNNYBROOK got off to an alert beginning and quickly made the front, was placed slightly off the inside upon reaching the half mile pole, showed the way, without facing any resistance around the turn, kicked clear when put to a vigorous hand ride in upper stretch and fended off the sole stretch threat. SUGAR TRADE was taken to the rail at the half mile pole, made up some ground from that station to the three-eighths pole, angled out for the stretch drive, was set down but got out finished. MAID TO WIN raced along the outside and tired. LOVABLE MCGRIFF was urged early, took the inside route, angled three wide into the lane and went on to best the rest. THUNDERIN YOUR EAR was through after completing a half. CAT GRACE steadied after the start, raced three wide and failed to reach contention.
