Footnotes

MAN IN BROWN SUIT chased from afar in the early stages, caught up to the runaway leader just before reaching the end of the backstretch, stayed within range from off the inside, instantly picked up speed when asked for some run in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, turned for home with only a small deficit to make up and was set down, overhauled the pacesetter during the ensuing furlong, emerged from the eighth pole leading by a comfortable margin and dug in well under a hard drive to preserve it. SILVER SKATES lagged behind for nearly three-quarters, came from the five path into the stretch and finished with good energy to garner the place. QUARTERMAIN sat in midpack, placed two wide, was already under encouragement spinning into the lane, held well for the show. WIN FOR THE ZIPPER full of run proceeding down the homestretch, was given some rein and spurred off to a lengthy advantage, squandered almost all it by the three-eighths pole, with the rest of the competition having caught up to him by this juncture, vied from the inside during the run around the far turn, surrendered to top one's challenge in upper stretch and steadily tired. CAROLINA CHANT reached contention with a four wide run initiated from the five-sixteenths pole, flattened out departing the furlong grounds. FORTY ROCK chased outside and folded. MATT AND JESSE tracked the loose leader from the inside, faltered. SOLID D'ORO raced along the outside and was through after completing three-quarters. SEAWALKER saved ground to no avail, then was eased. POP'S DOLLY off the inside, trailed almost throughout and was eased after entering the stretch.
