Footnotes

CIENTIFICO came inward slightly making light contact with the nearest opponent, underwent a three wide journey, made steady progress throughout the opening six furlongs to reach a good striking position by the quarter pole, entered the stretch and took off in earnest after the leader, fought his way to a narrow advantage by the eighth pole, showed good determination to fend off the runner up and preserve the decision. IMASPEEDYGUY lagged behind in the early going taking the inside route, vacated the premises coming to the end of the backstretch, was swung four wide into the stretch, gained readily on the front runners during the run through the furlong grounds, altered course a couple of paths closer to the rail in deep stretch, wasn't able to reel in the top one and had to settle for place honors. MY PAL OF PALS vied for command from off the rail, remained a prominent pace factor before weakening in the last eighth. EL DREAMER unhurried from off the rail in midpack for nearly six furlongs, was asked to pick up the pace angling three wide from the five-sixteenths pole, kept up the pursuit until midstretch, then flattened out. SUSPICIOUS U judiciously took the inside route around the opening bend, was taken out to the two path early down the backstretch, stayed from off the inside thereafter, gained some ground during the initial portion of the stretch run but could not sustain the bid. SNAP CALL rode the rail, failed to pick up any interest when asked for some run midway down the backstretch, cut the corner under right handed whipping and once more failed to pick up any real interest. PEARL OF WISDOM three wide on both turns, was never in contention. PROFESSOR CHAOS departed the backstretch from the three path, got outrun. MR ROSENTHAL quickly established control, was put to a firm hold in the early stages, argued for command until upper stretch, faltered. IRON PLAY raced along the outside and was through after completing three-quarters.
