Footnotes

GALLANT BREEZE secured a forward position in the initial stages, closed in on the front runners three wide on the turn, made a successful challenge to go by the last of them in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, first showed an inclination of coming out heading for the top of the lane, and then continued to do so for most of the way from there to the wire, bumped with EXCESS LIQUIDITY repeatedly, digging in stubbornly to the end up the unofficial winner. EXCESS LIQUIDITY travelled four wide on the turn, moved in tandem with GALLANT BREEZE towards the front runners, got carried out and bumped by the previously named rival spinning into the stretch, continued to bump and brush repeatedly as the pair made their way to the finish line, culminating in both foes leaning heavily upon each other during the last few strides. CIRCADIA was already being asked for run entering the stretch four wide, proved no match. BELLARDO disputed the pace from the outside, felt the presence of the top finishers during the later stages of run around the bend, fell back despite putting to solid encouragement and gave way. ADVANCEANDRETREAT rode the rail to midway on the turn, was taken off it to steer by a tiring rival, got put to encouragement a sixteenth later, tired. CHEROKEE CREEK steadied after breaking inward in an awkward manner, raced from off the inside and was outrun. QUIET MIRACLE vied for command from along the inside, came under intensified pressure departing the backstretch and soon succumbed to it. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the stretch drive, GALLANT BREEZE was disqualified from first and placed second for causing interference.
