Footnotes

SAGINAW sat well reserved from off the inside in the opening stages, moved up towards the front runners departing the backstretch under his own power, saw a narrow opening between rivals and squeezed through, appeared to poke in front turning for home and got called upon, edged away making his way to the finish line to prove best. JOAN'S CHOICE taken in hand leaving the chute, moved up eagerly to press the pacesetter, with the rider atop with a firm grip on the reins, drifted out slightly late on the turn providing a window of opportunity for the eventual winner, saw that rival slither his way through and grab the front, continued on with good courage down the lane but had to settle for being second best. WRITINGONTHEWALL settled near the inside, showed the way facing some resistance all the while, came under heavy pressure approaching the quarter pole and readily succumbed to it. BLACK N BEAUTY raced three wide and was through after completing six furlongs. ROMAN INVASION saved ground until the five-sixteenths pole, was angled three wide into the stretch, had no response. TRUE HEAVEN departed the backstretch from the three path, tired.
