Footnotes

CRAQUI came away from the gate without apparent mishap, quickly established control, set the splits, rated and kept at a slight distance from off the rail, turned for home and was given his cue, fended off the lone stretch threat, driving. CONCORDE'S PEACE raced along the outside chasing the winner throughout, got roused in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, proved no match while clearly second best. BEDOUIN NOW off the inside, was hand urged for most of the way around the turn, swung three wide into the stretch, made no headway. ROAR OF ROHAN left the half mile pole having already been put to some encouragement, kept OCEAN STORM company from the two path during the ensuing quarter, entered the lane and underwent an erratic course, weaving back and forth several paths at a time for a good portion of the stretch run. OCEAN STORM quickly tucked along the rail and faltered.
