Footnotes

PRINCESS OF SYLMAR away in good order, sat reserved in the two path for the majority of the way down the backstretch and a bit beyond that too, responded when asked to pick it up coming to the three-eighths pole, tipped into the three path a sixteenth later and accelerated towards the front runners, was confidently handled while between rivals entering the stretch en route to very shortly taking command, lengthened away to a healthy advantage during the ensuing furlong, maintained all of it, well wrapped up for nearly the entire final furlong. WEDDING TOAST raced from well off the inside throughout, was strung out three to four wide chasing the pacesetter around the turn, lost a tad of both real estate and momentum drifting into the four path turning for home, drifted out yet another during the next furlong, proved no match for the winner, and like that rival got geared down for most of the last eighth. FLASH FORWARD saved ground to the quarter pole and was along for the show. HIGHESTMAINTENANCE broke on top and maintained control, tucked along the rail shortly afterwards, showed the way on a loosely-contested lead while setting the first two fractions, pulling on the bit initially, got pounced upon by MONTANA NATIVE after going more than halfway around the bend, came under even heavier pressure with the arrival of PRINCESS OF SYLMAR soon afterwards, relinquished the lead for good after a couple of additional jumps and faltered. MONTANA NATIVE raced at or near the rail down the backstretch, had ample to slip into the two path leaving the half mile pole and did so, ranged up to confront HIGHESTMAINTENANCE approaching the five-sixteenths marker, went at it one on one with that foe for the next sixteenth, had the eventual winner arrive boldly on the scene at that juncture, failed to keep pace and backed away steadily.
