Footnotes

FORTHELOVEOF ANNA raced three wide around the turn, was asked for a response at the five-sixteenths pole, trying to keep pace with SILVER OVER GOLD, closed in on that rival after entering the stretch, reached the eighth pole on nearly even terms, took over a short distance down the road and edged away, driving. SILVER OVER GOLD patiently perched three wide off the early pace activity, overhauled an embattled pair coming to the five-sixteenths pole, with the rider still sitting chilly, had the rider glance back three times over his left shoulder, not spotting the main danger lurking on the opposite side in each instance, was let out when that one finally made her presence felt in upper stretch, attempted to stave that rival off, relinquished soon after departing the furlong grounds, but continued on with good energy to secure the place. IRISH LADY was taken in hand after making some contact with FRAZZIE just out of the starting gate, saved ground until the quarter pole, then came home with good energy to grab the show. SHE'S GOT RULES raced along the outside and rallied mildly. VOYAGER chased the front runners, positioned slightly off the inside and was through after completing a half. TORRONE dueled along the inside for a half and faltered. FRAZZIE disputed the pace from the two path during the opening half and gave way.
