Footnotes

CELTIC CHANT left alertly and quickly grabbed the front, cut the pace, placed near the inside, and under the watchful eye of FIONA STORM during the opening half, edged away late on the turn and turned for home no longer near the fence but from the two path, drifted out gradually proceeding from upper stretch to the wire, but held on well enough to stave off a pair of fast-moving closers, crossing the wire under hand encouragement. SALTAMONTES stayed within range from off the inside in the opening stages, was guided into the three path in preparation for the stretch run, entered the lane and took off in earnest, followed JOONBI's lead and altered course inward coming to the sixteenth pole, as the leader drifted outward, raced as a team with the third place finisher as the twosome made a solid late gain on the winner, couldn't catch that opponent in time but won the fight for place honors. JOONBI chased the leader from off the rail, chose to alter course towards the inside leaving the eighth pole as the winner made her way closer to the middle of the strip, raced in tandem with the runner up the remainder of the way and got out finished for second. FIONA STORM stalked the pacesetter from off the inside, lacked the necessary stretch response. DECORATED COURT raced along the outside, swung three wide into the lane, had little to offer.
