Footnotes

MAHFOUZ made light contact with RAYTESSA leaving the starting gate, was unhurried until midway on the turn, secured the three path coming to the five-sixteenths pole, after the previously mentioned rival drifted outward at that juncture, made a successful challenge a sixteenth down the road to take charge, drew out to a comfortable advantage during the ensuing furlong and maintained it under good handling. PRIME PLAYER argued for control from the inside, coaxed along to keep pace with his fellow combatant, fell back slightly despite being put to a full drive by the five-sixteenths pole, staged a good comeback leaving the furlong grounds to garner the place. THISSKYSABEAUTY three wide and asked for run at the three-sixteenths pole, missed out on the place. RAYTESSA brushed with the top one at the start, went to take up a forward post, departed the backstretch three wide, drifted outward a bit more leaving the three-eighths pole, losing position to the eventual winner, weakened in the last eighth. GYPSY WARRIOR chased the front runners, was already under encouragement by the five-sixteenths pole, tired. CHAMPLEVE sparred with the runner up for command from the outside, gave way after going a half. THE TAPINATOR raced along the outside and was outrun. LA FESTA E DOMANI suffered a fatal injury entering the stretch and was vanned off.
