Footnotes

LAUGHING (IRE) sat reserved in midpack from off the inside under a firm hold, remained so until the nearing the end of the backstretch, was placed three wide at the three-eighths pole and steadily advanced into the contention during the run around the far turn, spun into the lane within striking distance of the leader and was asked for his best, altered course towards the rail leaving the three-sixteenths pole after the runner up had drifted out several paths during the initial portion of the stretch drive, struck the front first as the pair arrived at the eighth pole, edged away thereafter under good handling. SILVER SCREAMER made the lead under his own power, was tucked along the rail before reaching the end of the homestretch, rated kindly on a loose lead, turned for home still in possession of a comfortable margin but with the closest pursuers, both heavily roused and starting to narrow in, drifted in the direction of the middle of the course making her way to the three-sixteenths pole, appeared to lose the lead at the eighth pole, but continued onward with good energy to be second best. CLASSICAL FASHION loosely stalked the pacesetter from the outside, got called upon by the five-sixteenths pole, folded. MUSICAL RAIN (IRE) along the inside for nearly six furlongs, angled three wide into the lane, with no closing punch to give. IN TE DOMINE saved ground until the furlong grounds, had no kick. GHOSTLY DARKNESS off the inside, gave way after completing three-quarters.
