Footnotes

HE'S SO CHIC darted over to the inside, making it there before departing the chute, lagged behind at the back of the pack for the opening half, began to pick up interest late on the turn, commenced his stretch drive four wide, but was soon tipped even more to be widest of all but one by upper stretch, out finished the cavalry charge heading to the eighth pole, completing the last few jumps under confident handling. LAYSH LAYSH LAYSH saved ground for just over a half, turned for home three wide, kept pace behind a wall of rivals during most of the stretch drive, eagerly drove through an opening between foes in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole and displayed solid late energy to secure second. OBLIGINGLY was coaxed in the two path during the run around the bend, awaited suitable options approaching the quarter pole, positioned behind a wall of opponents, altered course towards the inside, scrambling for better clearance as a tightly packed group arrived at midstretch, got out finished late. CROWN THE CHIEF away well, was conceded the lead by HEWITTS, was rated while showing the way from the inside, with the aforementioned rival patiently keeping a watchful eye for most of the opening half, came under increased pressure from that one leaving the three-eighths pole, stubbornly preserved a narrow advantage until midstretch, but with a firing line directly behind and fully formed, taking their best shot, offered resistance for a little while then succumbed. HEWITTS the early leader, was put to a firm hold and eased back into the role of stalker, applied some pressure on the pacesetter from the outside for much of the initial half, moved up to apply more from midpoint on the turn, got shaken off after a spirited tussle and weakened steadily in the last eighth. JET SET VINNY four wide and urged at the five-sixteenths pole, had no rally. SUN DANCE MOON raced along the outside, swung from the five path into upper stretch, lacked the needed response. STARFORADAY three wide on the turn, was part of a sizeable contingent moving with good energy approaching the eighth pole, but soon flattened out.
