Footnotes

FIERY FOREST sat reserved along the outside during the initial half, cruised up to the pacesetter with the rider sitting with a snug hold on the reins, left the leader behind after being asked to run in upper stretch, had the rider take a leisurely look back at the competition approaching the sixteenth pole, saw no danger in sight and went on to complete the contest under a mild hand ride. STORIESINTHEDARK settled near the rail after leaving the starting gate, made steady progress towards the front runners down the backstretch, was checked off heels in the vicinity of the half mile pole, losing some ground and momentum as a result, got going again, was taken outward for the stretch run and came home with good energy to secure the place. READING GROUP chased from the outside and was out finished. STORM RUBI away smartly, vied for the lead from the outside, was briefly clear only to be challenged by the top one as that pair neared the quarter pole, was called upon, but yielded when unable to keep pace, and steadily tired thereafter. MR. HOPPS between rivals on the turn, had no rally. GRAMERCY well off the inside, tired. STARR WEST contested the pace early, remained well placed in the two path for a half, faltered. KICK UP YOUR HEELS was always outrun. MOODY MAJESTY was no threat.
