MUFFY settled along the inside, was swung out midway on the turn, fanned four wide into the lane, commenced her rally after being roused in upper stretch, ranged up to the leader, took charge leaving the furlong marker, then edged away during the final eighth while being kept to the task at hand. STREET TALK reserved while wide, was set down turning for home, worked her way to the front by midstretch, was powerless to forestall the top one's rally but finished with good courage to protect the place. OUT NICE THEM well placed along the inside during the initial half, was angled out in upper stretch, lacked the necessary stretch response. LAGNIAPPE reserved along the outside, was steadied when caught in traffic on the turn, ducked inward at the three-sixteenths pole, was immediately asked for a response, but came up empty during the stretch drive. CITY VICE off a step slowly, was mildly urged to the take command, set the pace along the inside, gave way after entering the lane. PROFESSIONAL WOMAN chased the leader while wide until upper stretch, and tired. WARRIOR MISS lunged at the start and never reached a contending position. ARPANA saved ground throughout.
