Footnotes

FAIRWAY DRIVE rode the rail during the initial three quarters, angled outward to go past a weakening rival in the vicinity of the furlong grounds, then finished with determination during the final sixteenth to out kick a pair of stubborn foes. TOBRUK saved ground, gained the necessary clearance to slip off the rail when FELINEFELON began a fast retreat midway on the far turn, ranged up to challenge for the lead turning for home, forged his way to a slim advantage by the time the field reached the eighth pole, dug in with determination, before yielding late. KEY VICTORY raced three wide on both turns and was game to the bitter end. CITY ON LINE within striking distance, came home willingly. CLASSIC IMPACT raced four wide around the second turn, needed more after turning for home. ELDER SKATESMAN saved ground and displayed a mild rally, going past mainly weak rivals during the stretch drive. DUBLINER squeezed back at the start, failed to reach a contending position. CALAGAITOR was never in the hunt. I'M ENTITLED swung over to the inside once sufficiently clear nearing the opening bend, showed the way until upper stretch and tired. FELINEFELON chased the leader while racing along the outside, began a fast retreat midway on the far turn. SPECIAL TESORO was pulled up after going a half, and vanned off.
