Footnotes

MUHAASEB bobbled leaving the starting gate, was reserved along the outside during the initial half, raced a bit greenly in upper stretch after being asked for a response, suddenly settled into stride approaching the furlong marker, sped past the leader to open up a clear advantage, then held off the late closer under a drive. SIX CLICKS outrun until the top of the stretch, came home with a good late rally. MAGNIFICATION pressed the leader from the outside, made his bid for the lead approaching the head of the stretch, gained command soon afterwards, was overwhelmed by the top one past the eighth pole and steadily weakened thereafter. MORNING LINE bumped at the start, was no factor. WILDCAT GLORY was bumped at the start, made the front under mild encouragement, showed the way untested until nearing the quarter pole, and succumbed. FIVE ACES gave way after a half.
