Footnotes

HOLIDAY'S JEWEL was put to a firm hold by the pilot while in a tight between rivals near the top of the turn, had room to maneuver outward and did so coming to the five-sixteenths pole, left that station under solid encouragement, got fanned into the six path by the three-sixteenth marker, took off in earnest once straightened away, overhauled the runner up with under a sixteenth to go and shook free. BRICKS AND CLICKS along the overland route, unleashed a bold run to take over by the end of the run around the bend, was put to a drive after going three-quarters, felt the top one's presence soon after leaving the eighth pole, got collared in the final seventy yards and had to settle for being second best. CLAIMING VICTORY was put to encouragement during the opening stages while racing along the inside down the backstretch, slipped into the two path by midpoint on the turn, split rivals at the five-sixteenths pole, weakened after staying in contention to the furlong marker. SO BLESSED bumped at the start, gave chase from the three path and tired. DARLING BRIDEZILLA chased the leader from the outside, folded. WIN FOR KITTEN fanned eight wide into upper stretch, made no impact. EZPZ LEMON SQUEEZE in the four path entering the turn, was seven wide exiting it, tired. RAIN FOREST bumped at the start, went on to take control, showed the way from the inside, got overtaken in the vicinity of the three-eighths pole, retreated.
