Footnotes

LADY ON THE RUN settled at the rear while on the rail saving ground early on, gradually angled to be four wide by midway on the turn and moved into contention under her own power, swung four wide at the head of the lane under light urging, collared the leader just past the eighth pole and edged clear while being kept busy to the end. SALTAMONTES dueled three wide while in reserve down the backside and around the turn, came under a drive at the quarter pole and responded well, had no answer for the top one while staying on well to be a clear second best. PAGE BY PAGE dueled under light hand urging while saving ground throughout the turn, angled into the three path at the head of the lane, rallied mildly to procure the show. RAFFIE'S ROSE tracked three wide, came under a drive nearing the quarter pole and displayed an even bid to secure the last major share. STELLARS THEORY prominent early on, came under a long drive that commenced midway on the turn and steadily faded. BRETTON WOODS bided time in midpack early on, chased from the two path around the turn, came under urging midway and tired. BLUE SIXTY FOUR broke out at the start and had the rider correct him before any serious contact was made with his outside rival, drifted out despite the rider trying to correct him entering the turn, lost contact with the field, was put back on a truer course but was not persevered with in the lane being put to a protective hold and having to much to do.
