Footnotes

MIZZEN DONALD settled into the middle of the pack from off the inside, began to pick up the pace coming to the end of the turn, swung five wide into upper stretch, got straightened away and took off after the front runners, displayed good energy closing in on them while making her way through the furlong grounds, maintained the momentum leaving the eighth pole, grabbed away the advantage in the late stages and edged away, crossing the finish line, hand urged. ELUSIVE JOZI underwent a three wide pursuit, cruised up towards the front runners leaving the three-eighths pole, entered the stretch and got called upon, forged her way to a slim advantage by the furlong marker, got reeled in by the top one but continued onward in willing fashion to secure second. PRIMAL BABY away with no apparent mishap, shook free under her own power in the initial stages, had THOSE LION EYES latch on just before reaching the end of the backstretch, vied to maintain the advantage around the turn, doing so while being unasked for speed, had the winner make her presence more pronounced by the quarter pole and was let out in response to the new challenger, surrendered the lead during the ensuing furlong, weakened steadily thereafter into the show slot. JOLIENNE was lightly hand coaxed tracking the front runners while sitting in the pocket, briefly waited then was taken in hand for a stride before angling into the three path for the commencement of the stretch drive, appeared to have intentions to tip outward an additional path soon afterwards, but stayed on the original course, lacked a solid closing response altogether. NIGHT BRIGADE cut the corner into the stretch and had no rally. WISE CHOICE sluggish making her way down the backstretch, took the inside route for most of the opening half, got taken outward for the stretch run, made no impact. THOSE LION EYES attended the pacesetter from the outside for just over a half and gave way.
