Footnotes

HEAD HEART HOOF broke on top and quickly established control, sailed along on a loosely-contested lead towards the three path, was let out turning for home, drifted out slightly wider in the initial portion of the stretch drive, kept a much truer course and remained well clear of the others under good handling. FRAZIL only one of two in the race totally unscathed at the break, with the other being the eventual winner, rode the rail until the crown of the turn, got angled outward into the three path by the three-eighths pole, proved no match for the winner en route for the place. TAKE DOWN TWO got bumped after the start, chased primarily two wide on the turn but was closer to the fence once into the stretch, got outfinished. BLIND HOPE brushed at the start, chased the winner travelling four wide on the turn and tired. RAGING DAOUST got bumped a couple of jumps out of the starting gate, was strung out four wide by midpoint on the turn, had no rally. POPPA'S PICK bumped lightly from each side at the break, was taken over to the inside leaving the backstretch, faltered. W. W.'S LADY'S MAN brushed coming out of the gate, chased the top one from the outside and folded. TEMECULA CREEK bumped from between opponents just out of the starting gate, raced from well off the rail down the backstretch, trailed.
