Footnotes

SIMBAMANGU departed the backstretch four wide, crept up towards the front runners, made a bid nearing the five-sixteenths pole, dueled on nearly even terms with the runner up from that station until the sixteenth pole, kicked clear late and did so being geared down for the final seventy yards. CAPTAINS CAT three wide, dueled with two separate opponents, fell back slightly nearing the sixteenth pole, continued onward to be second best. INNER COMPASS off a beat slowly, flashed a brief burst of speed leaving midpoint on the turn, sustained it until about upper stretch then flattened out. FREDERICO rushed up towards the inside, argued for control with the second place finisher for nearly a half, gave way. CHARLESTONIAN three wide, was under encouragement well before reaching the end of the backstretch, folded. PERCUSSION raced along the outside and trailed.
