Footnotes

COMANDANTE broke alertly, responded positively to the hold being applied by the pilot and got eased back, departed the backstretch and picked up interest when asked, challenged as the widest of three near the midway point on the turn, took over and got put to encouragement, successfully fended off the runner up despite drifting out in the late stages. WEST HILLS GIANT lost his footing at the start, remained unhurried two wide until late on the bend, swung four wide into the stretch and took off in earnest after the front runners, proved no match for the winner, while comfortably ahead of the others for the place. ANAPHYLAXIS gave chase being two wide on the turn, fanned outward for the drive home until in the six path, rallied for the show. CHAPMAN handed urged to secure early prominence, was forced to stave off a pair of opponents parked to the outside for most of the way around the bend, faltered. SPORTSWRITER stumbled badly at the start, was sent over to the inside route, vacated the premises near the three-sixteenths pole, came up empty. UNCLE T SEVEN was guided over to the rail shortly after the start, proceeded to get angled outward four wide from the five-sixteenths marker, lacked the necessary stretch response. JACK'S R WILD placed eight wide at the top of the lane, made no impact. READTHEBYLINE pressed the issue from between rivals for a majority of the run around the bend, gave way. ORINO was grabbed hold after the rival next door stumbled badly at the break, departed the backstretch from the three path, failed to reach a contending position and tired.
