Footnotes

RECHARGED sat reserved while taking the inside route, angled out sharply into the four path coming to the five-sixteenths pole, was on the move outward once more, spinning two paths further towards the grandstand apron turning for home, got straightened away and responded positively when asked for his best, made good progress during the initial portion of the stretch drive, but did so even better afterwards, was the widest of a line of six spread out across the course in the vicinity of sixteenth pole, with little separating the sextet in terms of margins, outkicked the other five to get up prior to the wire. RUSTLER HUSTLER off a beat slowly, saved ground while proceeding down the backstretch, but raced along the outside on each bend, was under a drive entering the stretch, forged his way to a slight advantage while in the middle of a mob of horses making their way towards the sixteenth marker, dug in with good determination while trying to cling to it, yielded reluctantly to the winner, but showed enough at the end to preserve the place. WAR HOOT picked up the pace departing the backstretch, entered the far turn three wide, exited it five wide, had a good finish down the outer portion of the course en route for the show. FREE BRAVE raced along the outside in midpack, swung four wide for the commencement of the stretch run, came home willingly but had to settle for the last major check. KIPPERS N' EGGS grabbed the early advantage and was sent over to the rail, showed the way on an open lead, being rated along, came under heavy assault after entering the stretch, relinquished in midlane, fought on to remain a prominent factor until the sixteenth pole before weakening. YANKEE FORTUNE three wide on both turns, bid boldly coming to the eighth pole, kept up the pursuit for a little while longer then gave way. VEILED PROPHET along the inside, was steadied and shuffled back to avoid running up on a tiring opponent near the midway point on the far turn, swung outward entering the stretch, offered no solid response. DEPARTURES loosely stalked the pacesetter from the two path for nearly three-quarters before giving way. OPEN OUTCRY faded off a ground-saving journey. STORMY SUCCESS saved ground while nearly trailing throughout.
