Footnotes

MYRLANSKI took the inside route on the turn, was already under encouragement cutting the corner into the stretch, altered course to the middle of the strip in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, closed in readily, took over with about a sixteenth remaining and edged away. TACONIC KNIGHT stalked the pace fight from off the inside, moved up towards the survivor of that skirmish coming to the five-sixteenths pole, responded positively when given his cue, challenged between rivals for most of the way from the furlong marker to the sixteenth pole, never did strike the front, but continued onward willingly to secure second. STONEMILL vied for the lead from the outside, ducked inward after taking over during the run around the bend, held his ground stubbornly from upper to midstretch, gave in to pressure approaching the sixteenth pole, and eventually weakened into the show slot. SMARTERALEX three wide departing the backstretch, chased the duelers, lacked the necessary stretch when called upon. ALL ZIPPED UP bumped with ENGINE FIVE at the start, had no rally. EL DREAMER off the inside, was asked for a response midway on the turn, made no headway on the front runners. ENGINE FIVE exchanged a couple of bumps with ALL ZIPPED UP after bobbling at the start, rushed up along the rail to contest the pace, fought for nearly a half before backing away. PEGASUS PAPOU three to four wide on the turn, tired. KEYALY swung four wide into the lane, had no offering to render. OMMADON'S REIGN offered little. SANDICAN was never in the hunt. SILVER GATES saved ground and displayed brief foot.
