Footnotes

AWESOME FEATHER broke well and settled into a forward position, took up the role of stalker once LOVE AND PRIDE successfully made her way to the top early on the first turn, rated kindly from the two path accompanying the pacesetter, was asked for a response making a run at the leader coming to the five-sixteenths pole, spun into the lane alongside that opponent and commenced to rally in earnest, emerged from the furlong grounds with a clear advantage, showed good acceleration during the upcoming sixteenth to add to it, had the rider cast a glance back at the competition in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, remained under active handling for a few more strides before allowed to finish the seventy yards or so under her own courage. DRAW IT three wide on the second turn, rallied for the place. LOVE AND PRIDE made a three wide run to establish command, tucked over to the rail midway on the opening bend once sufficiently clear of the others, cut the pace from the inside, with rider applying rating tactic until the quarter pole, got let out with the winner bearing down hard at that station, succumbed when unable to match that foe's speed during the run through the furlong grounds, got out finished for place honors in the late stages as well. DARING REALITY raced along the outside, finished well belatedly to improve position. MISS VALENTINE off to a sluggish beginning, took the inside route, was under encouragement cutting the corner into the lane, made some progress from upper to midstretch, before flattening out. R GYPSY GOLD three wide on the far turn, had no response. BRYAN'S JEWEL reserved in midpack from off the inside, angled four wide at the five-sixteenths pole, came up empty for the stretch drive. SAVVY SUPREME saved ground until the quarter pole and faded.
