Footnotes

WESTSIDE CORRAL contently tracked the leader from afar during the opening stages, began a long, but steady advancement into contention from midpoint on the backstretch, continued to bide time until nearing the quarter pole, angled outward for the stretch drive, gained readily, grabbed control in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole and drew off under good handling. GOOD TO BE ME broke running to grab the early lead, showed the way, rated on a loose lead towards the inside until the quarter pole, was let out a notch heading into the stretch, felt the top one's presence with an eighth to go, failed to keep pace, releasing the lead coming to the sixteenth pole, but held well enough to the end to preserve place honors. ATITLAN reserved for nearly six furlongs, finished with a flourish to take the show. BOAT three wide around the second turn, lacked the needed closing punch. SOLUTIONFINDERS prompted the leader under a good hold while racing along the outside, issued a brief and tepid challenge for the lead from the three-eighths pole to the five-sixteenths pole before backing off. DESENFRENADO along the rail around the opening bend, was eased outward soon after reaching the backstretch, remained unhurried, was called upon entering the stretch but lacked a kick. STORIESINTHEDARK sat reserved towards the back of the pack, was placed four wide at the three-eighths pole, before being eased back a bit, tucking into the three path soon afterwards, continued from there during the rest of the way on the far turn, tired steadily after turning for home. BOURBON BANDIT forwardly placed while three to four wide around the far turn, folded. OCTOBER DREAMS was rank under restraint leaving the starting gate, settled down a bit in time for the run around the opening bend, took the inside route, lacked reaction time as he neared the stricken rival, plowing into the ill-fated opponent on the far turn, and losing the rider as a result. RYAN AND JACK along the inside, appeared to clip heels, stumbled badly, fell heavily and unseated the rider. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the incident on the far turn before the result was declared official.
