Footnotes

SINGLET sat perched in the three path, stalking the front runners, moved when ready to take on CURLINA leaving the midway point on the turn, launched a successful three wide bid at the quarter pole to take charge, needing little encouragement, got turned loose soon afterwards, shook free and emerged from the furlong grounds, holding her biggest advantage, held sway, crossing the wire under a brisk hand ride. KID KATE chased the front runners from the two path, picked up interest immediately when set down in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, sat wedged between rivals, one of them being the eventual winner, for a brief period of time in upper stretch, closed the gap belatedly but had to settle for the place. DELIGHTFUL QUALITY four wide heading for the half mile pole, was eased back and taken closer to the inside, swung four wide into the stretch under urging, kept up the pursuit of the top one before flattening out in the last sixteenth. CURLINA showed the way from the inside, being pressed by MOONLIT MALIBU until the upper portion of the turn, had that opponent drop back despite being put to a full drive and get replaced by SINGLET as the primary pursuer shortly afterwards, offered little resistance when put to the test by the last mentioned foe, remained a prominent factor for a little while longer then faded. JELLY CABLE got off to a sluggish beginning, rode the rail for nearly a half, spun three wide into the stretch, then drifted a bit wider still, had no impact. MOONLIT MALIBU chased the leader from the two path, got put to a prolonged hard drive by the half mile pole, was no longer latched on to the pacesetter less than a furlong later, tired badly.
