Footnotes

SILVER PRIZE along the outside, raced on even terms with the third place finisher until that opponent was allowed to ease back, had the runner up initiate a second duel coming to the end of the backstretch, kept pace with that foe needing only to be lightly hand urged to maintain interest, and in sharp contrast to the urgent handling being deployed by the rider of MILKYOURWAY, shook free for good by the quarter pole, was almost at the three-sixteenths pole before getting asked for a response, drew off. MILKYOURWAY assumed a forward position right after the start, required some hand urging to drew alongside the top one nearing the half mile pole, raced on nearly even terms with that opponent for a bit more than halfway on the turn, being asked for run to keep up while her nemesis sat basically chilly, fell back nonetheless by the five-sixteenths pole, hooked up in fight for second with RODINIA starting in the vicinity of the quarter pole and came out the victor of that dispute. RODINIA went at it head to head with the winner for a good portion down the chute, was grabbed hold and eased back just before the initial split was set, chased the front runners, engaged in their own duel by now, while racing from off the inside on the turn, swung three wide into the stretch under solid encouragement, got outfinished late for the place. G. A. EMPRESS three wide entering the turn, was five wide exiting it, made no impact. HUNDRED ACRE WOOD rode the rail until the five-sixteenths pole, made a sharp four wide angle turning into the stretch, came up empty. JUNOON raced along the outside, got asked for run by midpoint on the turn, folded.
