Footnotes

KARAKORUM CRUSADER, off the pace, saved ground through the turn, was taken six wide entering the stretch, dueled to a short lead and was maintained to the wire. THREDEED rated close to the pace from the inside, was steadied lacking room entering the stretch, angled out for the drive, dueled the remainder of the stretch but was outfinished. BLOW THE BLUES was unhurried toward the outside, made a bid six wide on the turn, lost ground entering the stretch then closed while drifting in and leveled off. BORN TO BOP, well off the pace widest, made an outside bid in the stretch. LITTLE LORI LU rated the pace, was checked to avoid the loose horse in the upper stretch then couldn't regain her momentum. DIVINELY stalked the pace, dropped back a head contesting the turn then tired into the stretch. HALFWAY TO HEAVEN rated just off the pace, showed no response entering the stretch then veered sharply in creating a domino effect in the upper stretch. ONE FOR NICK dwelt at the start, raced unhurriedly and offered no rally. ROCK QUEEN was bumped at the start, raced off the pace, ran five wide through the turn then was steered sharply inward in the upper stretch bumping BACARA, hit the rail nearly unseating her rider and was not asked further. COUNTING VISIONS, off the pace, was bothered and checked hard on the rail in the upper stretch, then eased. BACARA broke outward bumping ROCK QUEEN at the start, raced off the pace then was bothered and bumped hard, stumbling badly and unseating her rider in the upper stretch. APRIL MORNING stumbled badly losing her rider at the start. A stewards inquiry into the events of this race, warranted no overt changes
