Footnotes

MAIL brushed at the start, went on to establish control nonetheless, rated kindly laying down moderate fractions, got called upon spinning into the stretch, spurted off. MICROMANAGE made slight contact with PAPPA PORTMORE at the start, raced along the outside, was under encouragement travelling on the second bend, swung four wide into the stretch, got straightened away and finished willingly enough to procure the place. PAPPA PORTMORE lightly bumped from both sides leaving the starting gate, was put along the inside route well before reaching the first turn, got fanned outward after completing six furlongs until in the five path by the three-sixteenths pole, rallied to grab the show award, although never posing a threat to either the winner or the runner up. WEST HILLS GIANT three wide on both turns, folded. VEGAS NO SHOW raced towards the inside, felt the whip cutting the corner into the lane, had no response. EDGE OF REALITY stalked the top one from the two path, got roused after going three-quarters, tired.
