Footnotes

MR. FANTASY showed a quick burst of speed leaving the starting gate to assume a prominent early position, advanced on his own courage to take charge midway during the run around the bend, was kept well in reserve until reaching the three-sixteenths pole, drew off under hand encouragement during the next furlong, before being confidently geared down leaving the sixteenth pole. DRIVEN BY SOLAR raced along the outside, proved to be no match for the top one but continued on well to be a clear second. STRONG IMPACT chased three wide and tired. KATSKILL BAY failed to threaten after saving ground. CORONATION DAY steadily tired after going a half. HERB'S GLORY stumbled at the start, never reached contention. KING LEOPOLD was no factor. FIRST DAY off a beat slowly, was rushed to the front, faded after going a half. BADGE OF RED offered little. SMARTY KARAKORUM was no menace. JACOB'S DREAM was outrun.
