KISSES FROM KAREN away well from the gate, motored under light encouragement to the front after the start, vied for the lead while taking the inside route around the turn, shook free approaching the quarter pole, then held sway under a drive to fend off the runner up. FIRST PENNY was maneuvered over to the inside down the backstretch, advanced willingly with a rail rally after entering the stretch, angled out at the sixteenth pole to continue the bid, but had to settle for the place. DANCE CARD FILLED unhurried for nearly a half, had a good finish outside en route for the show. INDIA HERMOSA vied for command from the two path, failed to keep up with the top one nearing the quarter pole and steadily weakened thereafter. SHADY ROAD four wide leaving the backstretch, ranged up to a good striking distance under her own power in the three path from the five-sixteenths pole, was called upon spinning into the lane, but failed to deliver up the needed punch, then was pulled up quickly after crossing the finish line. HAPPY HAYA was carried out a couple of paths by an errant rival in the vicinity of the five-eighths pole, chugged along from the outside on the turn while appearing to climb, swung from the four path into the stretch, lugged in momentarily after settling into the lane, then improved position past mainly weak and tired ones. MIDNIGHT STUNNER began the run around the bend three wide, chased the leader for a half and backed off. HOT TEA was never in contention. GOLDEN LADDER three wide around the turn, folded. LIVIN DANGEROUSLY saved ground to no avail.
