Footnotes

I BET TONI KNOWS underwent a four wide pursuit, closed readily during the stretch drive and wore down the leader in the final seventy yards to prove best. SACRED SUCCESS tracked the front runners from the pocket, responded positively when given her cue in upper stretch, launched a rail rally to secure the front approaching the eighth pole, clung to a narrow advantage, felt the winner's presence by the sixteenth pole, offered good resistance before yielding a short distance from the finish line. NOTESFROMABROAD broke inward at the start but quickly went on to assume the lead, vied to maintain the advantage from the two path, felt increased pressure from the two closest pursuers coming to the end of the turn and was let out in response to it, relinquished the lead in midstretch but continued onward willingly to secure the show. POP POP'S SMYLE lightly bumped a short distance out of the starting gate, took the inside route and lacked the needed response. LUNCHWITHGODZILLA disputed the pace three wide, remained a prominent factor until the furlong marker before backing away. RIVER'S END made slight contact with POP POP'S SMYLE a few strides out of the gate, rode the rail, was forced to be taken in hand while running up to be precariously close to the previously mentioned foe's heels coming to the quarter pole, got going once more but had no serious offering to render. PAVE THE WAY hard used early, remained under busy handling while racing along the outside on the turn, fanned four wide into upper stretch and tired. JILLISTANA stumbled at the break, departed the backstretch from the three path and was through after completing a half. CATALINA ISLAND was carried inward several paths by an errant NOTESFROMABROAD at the start, was kept off the rail, was put to encouragement during the run around the bend, but could make no headway on the front runners. MO' BRITTANI saved ground while trailing.
